The Court at the stage of admission made the following:

ORAL ORDER: (per GB.J.)

The Writ Petition is filed seeking Writ of Mandamus directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for appointment as Sub-Inspector of Police (Civil) by implementing the judgment of the A.P. Administrative Tribunal in O.A.No.5195 of 2004 dated 20.9.2004 by following the judgment of this Court in Writ Petition No.34306 of 1998 and batch, dated 24.2.2005 and further direct the respondents to send the petitioner for training immediately along with others with all consequential benefits.

2. After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Services-I, we are not inclined to go into the merits of the case. Suffice it to say that Contempt Application No.1094 of 2004 is pending before the Tribunal for implementation of the orders passed by it, and in the meanwhile this Court disposed of batch of Writ Petitions giving various directions and finally observing that after adjusting the candidates in the batch of Writ Petitions, there will be left over 8 vacancies, for which the Recruitment Board may take appropriate steps to fill up the same in the next recruitment year. Since the persons who secured lesser marks were directed to be granted appointment, we leave it open to the petitioner to agitate the said plea before the Tribunal in the pending Contempt Application. The Tribunal is directed to dispose of Contempt Application No.1094 of 2004, if not already disposed of, within a period of four (04) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Pending disposal of the above Contempt Application, one post out of 8 vacancies shall be kept unfilled.

3. With the directions indicated above, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No costs.
